

This transcript was exported on Dec 20, 2022 - view latest version here.

Amy H. Nuttall:

When you start your journey for growing your family, developing your family, we recommend you speak to an attorney. Don't have someone who dabbles in it. Make sure your legal documents are in order, but you must have an attorney to draft this. You can't use a template. It's very case-specific. It's very important because this is a document that the court would rely on if something goes wrong.